HOC SIGNO FORTUNA

BALTIMORE, FRIDAY, August 24, 1821.

No time to be lost.

At the third drawing yesterday afternoon of the GRAND STATE LOTTERY, the premium of One Thousand dollars was awarded to No. 2257 being the first drawn—It was sold in a whole ticket at Cohen's office; on reference to the official list on the fourth page it will be seen that a floating prize of Five Thousand Dollars was also drawn. This brilliant little capital come up to No. 13191 and was divided into one half and two quarters, which is a continuance of the dispensing of Fortune's favors in shares. The cash for both prizes is ready at Cohen's office for the fortunate owners.

Small Prizes.

Adventurers who holding small prizes and intend renewing them, should forward them for that purpose as soon as possible, in order to take the chance for every capital yet to be drawn—On Thursday next, another premium of One Thousand Dollars will be awarded to the first drawn number.

Splendid Dividends

Were obtained yesterday afternoon from small sums invested in the Grand State Lottery of Maryland—No. 13191, which came out the prize of 5,000 Dollars, was divided in shares: One Half, say the Brilliant amount of TWO THOUSAND FIVE HUNDRED DOLLARS, was the result of an expenditure of the trifling sum of Five Dollars—and for the still less investments of Two Dollars and Fifty Cents, TWELVE HUNDRED AND TWENTY-FIVE DOLLARS each, were produced to two different persons.—Here is the benefit of having a chance in the Lottery—on the contrary, however, should these adventures have been unfortunate, what would have been their loss?—only the trifling sum of Ten Dollars amongst three persons.

Those, therefore, not yet supplied with Tickets or Shares in the Grand State Lottery, should send on their orders without delay, addressed to

J. I. COHEN, Jr.

Sec'y to the Managers, Baltimore.

Progress of the Drawing.

The tickets and shares in the Grand State Lottery having had almost an unprecedented demand; as an acknowledgement of the liberal patronage which the Managers have received from distant adventurers, the drawings will progress twice a week and at the rate of six hundred numbers each day, so that the speedy completion of the Lottery, will soon determine the result of investments.

It will be recollected that in the Grand State Lottery, the Cash can be had at Cohen's Office, for prizes the moment they are drawn.

The Town authorities of Wilmington, N. C. published a notice on the 11th instant, in which it is stated that within that week, "six persons have died with a fever, bearing strong resemblance to the Yellow Fever; that a number of persons were then confined with the same disorder, and that one or two only that have been attacked, have as yet recovered. It has not been ascertained whether the disease were engendered among ourselves, or imported from the Havana. Investigation is on foot and the result will be made known. In laying these facts before the public, it is done as much to prevent exaggeration, as to state them precisely as they exist."

Five dollar counterfeit notes on the Bank of Pennsylvania are in circulation, and also, notes of the same denomination on the Mechanics's Bank in the city of New York. They are so clumsily executed, that almost any person can with a little care, distinguish them from the genuine paper of those institutions.

BAY TRADE.

It is estimated that upwards of 1000 sail of vessels from 50 to 100 tons and upwards, are employed in carrying from the different rivers in the Chesapeake Bay, North Carolina, Virginia, Pennsylvania, District of Columbia, and Maryland, &c to Baltimore. Should the navigation of the Susquehanna River be improved, of which there is no doubt, this trade will be nearly doubled, and the advantage will be incalculable.

Property to the amount of $5,000,000. is said to be in litigation in the British Court of Chancery. A motion has been made in Parliament for a Bill to abridge the proceedings. Some of the cases in this court have been on the docket for more than a century or more. A citizen of Providence, (R. I.) is prosecuting in the British Chancery for property of his ancestors, to the amount of $7,000,000.

The Boston Gazette observes, "We understand the keel of a national ship is nearly ready to be laid at the Navy Yard in Philadelphia, which is expected to be the largest armed ship in the world, by having three entire tiers of guns, besides those on the quarter deck and fore-castle—in all 140 guns.

HALIFAX, August 9.

By H. C. M. brig Railleur, 18 days from St. Thomas, on her return to France from the W. I. station, we learn that Sir George Collier had written to the Governor and Admiral at Martinique, stating to them that on his passage from the Coast of Africa, he had fallen in with part of the St. Helena squadron bound to England, and was informed that Buonaparte, the Ex-emperor of France, was buried on the 7th of May; his death having been occasioned by a cancer of the pylorus or upper orifice of the stomach. This disease being of an internal nature as well as incurable, may be gradually destroying that most important organ, the stomach, without its existence being known; or if discovered, without any benefit arising to the sufferer from the medical art.

The interment must be only temporary; for agreeable to the Treaty between the Allied Sovereigns, the body of the Ex-Emperor must, we believe, be carried to England, to be at the disposal of H. M. Government.

NEW-YORK, August 12.

The French 74 Colosses, admiral Julien, and a French frigate, from the Pacific Ocean, and last from Havanna, arrived off Sandy Hook on Saturday afternoon, where they remained at anchor on Sunday noon. They will come in to port with the first favourable wind.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 21.

Mr. Secretary CALHOUN has left this city, on an excursion to the mountains.

Mr. Secretary ADAMS is about to leave this city on a visit to his father.

Mr. Attorney-General WIRT returned some days ago from a tour in New York, &c.

NORFOLK, August 20.

The French frigate which anchored in Hampton Roads on Friday afternoon, is La Duchesse de Berri, Capt. Drouax, 11 days from Martinique; put in to land midshipmen Hossack, Surgeon's Mate Weisenthal, six men and a boy, the prize crew put on board the French schr. Matilda, Capt. Philibert, captured off Triton Roads on the 24th May last, by the U. S. schr. Alligator, Lieut. Com'dt Stockton, and ordered for Boston. The M. was on the ensuing day (Sunday,) recaptured by those of her crew who were left on board, and carried into Cayenne, where they were represented by the recaptors to be pirates; were about a week after their arrival put on board a Government brig, and ordered for Fort Royal, (Martinique)—from her they were, by order of the Governor, transferred to the frigate in which they arrived here. They were brought up on Saturday morning, in a barge, from the frigate, and landed at the Navy-Yard.

CHARLESTON, Aug. 15.

Latest from the Spanish Main.

We learn by the brig Eliza, capt. Chazal, arrived at this port in 25 days from Savanilla, that Gen. Bolivar had resigned the office of President of the Republic of Colombia, and that a successor, whose name our informant did not recollect, had been appointed. There had been no recent event of moment—the patriots were generally successful, and were in possession of the whole neighbouring coast with the exception of Carthagena.

NORFOLK, Aug. 20.

We rejoice at being able to state, that since the meeting of the Board of Health last Thursday, there has been but one decided case of malignant fever in our town, which occurred in the neighbourhood of the original seat of the disease. And as every precaution has been adopted, particularly in the removal of the inhabitants from the infected district, we may reasonably hope there will be no new cases of the disease.—Herald.

The Quebec Gazette of the 6th inst. says—"We received our regular file of papers by the American packet ship James Monroe, forwarded from the General Post Office, at London, which it appears has now determined to send mails for Canada by these ships, which sail regularly from Liverpool, on the 1st of every month, and usually make very short passages.

The fortunate holder of No. 2257, the premium Prize of ONE THOUSAND DOLLARS, drawn yesterday afternoon, has presented his ticket at COHEN'S OFFICE. The Cash was INSTANTLY PAID in Notes of the Bank of the United States.

Since the above was written, one of the quarters of the 5,000 dollar prize, has been also presented by the owner, a gentleman of this city. He was, also, immediately put in possession of the CASH, which will be paid for all prizes in the Grand State Lottery the moment they are drawn.
